

ADO Youth Fund Raffle Dart Stars
Virginia Beach Tourney 2010
Amount raised - $313

In the words of Yogi Berra, “It’s Deja Vu all over again.” as Tom Sawyer wins the men’s “Be a Dart Star” Youth Fund Raffle at Virginia Beach for the second year in a row. Only his female counterpart was different. This year, Brenda Roush won for the ladies. Congratulations to both winners and thanks to all of you who contributed to this worthy endeavor.

Here’s a little about them:

Tom Sawyer

Hometown? Peabody, MA
League? Minutemen Dart League
Playing out of? The Barn Pub
Playing how long? 18 years
Favorite thing about darts? Still the competition
Tom is the ADO Region 5-1 Director and makes the beautiful wooden dart cases seen on the Horizon web site.
Once again, Tom donated his $20 Horizon Bucks prize money to the Virginia Beach Youth Tournament.

Brenda Roush

Hometown? Denver, CO
League? Rocky Mountain Dart Assoc.
Playing out of? The North Shore
Playing how long? 22 years
Favorite thing about darts? Knowing incredible people all over the world
Brenda is ranked #2 on the latest ADO rankings and will be representing the USA at the America’s Cup in Jamaica this August. She supports The Gathering Place, a safe haven and self-sufficiency resource for unfortunate women and their kids.
